“What could be better than having a friend?”
asked Friend Bear as he picked flowers.

“Having a best friend!”
Best Friend Bear laughed.

“One of my best friends
is Love-a-lot Bear,” said Friend Bear.

“I’m picking these for her,
because she always cares about and loves her friends.”

Cheer Bear and Wish Bear
came up on their skates.

“Are you best friends?”

Best Friend Bear asked.

“Yes,” said Wish Bear.

“We both like skates, stars,
and rainbow bars!”

“I have plenty of rainbow bars to share with my best friend, Tenderheart Bear,” said Share Bear.

“He always knows where to find the rainbows and hearts that I like to share with all of my friends.”

Funshine Bear and Grumpy Bear rode up on their bikes.

“Are you two best friends?”

Best Friend Bear asked.

“Yes,” said Grumpy Bear.

“Funshine Bear chases away my grumpy moods.”

“And no one is better
at fixing things than Grumpy Bear,” said
Funshine Bear.

“He can fix skates, toys,
bikes, and swings.”

“See, having a best friend is better than having a friend,” said Best Friend Bear.

“Actually, there is something even better than having one best friend,” said Friend Bear.

Best Friend Bear said.
